Féis Rútaí Thír Chonaill

Dear Teachers, Parents and Dancers,

On behalf of the Boyle School and McQuade School, we are beyond excited to welcome you all to this, our sixth Féis Rútaí Thír Chonaill 2026.

No matter who we meet in whatever part of the world, our passion for Dance and our Glasgow/Donegal roots become part of our conversation. We are incredibly proud of our Donegal roots, it holds a connection to our parents and grandparents especially the areas of Dungloe, Loughanure and Falcarragh where we still have our family homes. With our upbringing firmly rooted in Glasgow and Donegal, we found it fitting to name our Feis, 'Féis Rútaí Thír Chonaill' – 'Our Donegal Roots.'

We are again delighted to return to our fantastic venue, Scotland's National Stadium Hampden Park. The venue offers state of the art facilities: 4 large suites, practice areas, a vending village, plenty of parking spaces, a café offering hot and cold food, drinks and a teacher hospitality room.

So that family and friends can keep in touch with the weekends' events, there will be regular photos and updates via our Feis Instagram and Facebook pages @feisrtcglasgow. We will be live streaming our results and parades. Please let us know if any child should not be included in our media posts.

Thank you again for your support and we look forward to welcoming you all to Glasgow at the end of August.
